

Holy Hike September

When? September 14, 2019 @ 11 AM to 1 PM

Where? Waldrop Stone Falls/CLEMSON EXPERIMENTAL FOREST

Waldrop Stone Falls is a 1 mile lightly trafficked loop trail located near Central, South Carolina that features a waterfall and is good for all skill levels. The trail is primarily used for hiking and nature trips and is best used from April until October.

Distance: 1 Mile Elevation Gain: 177 feet Route Type: Loop

Check it out on AllTrails.com <https://www.alltrails.com/trail/us/south-carolina/waldrop-stone-falls>

Directions:

- 1. In Clemson at the intersection of SC 133, US 76, US 123, and SC 28, turn right onto 133 and continue for 3.3 miles until you reach Madden Bridge Road.
- 2. After turning right on Madden Bridge Road, drive 0.2 mile to Waldrop Stone Road on your LEFT. Immediately there is a pull-off and trail to the right. We will meet at the second entrance, approximately 0.2 miles further up Waldrop Stone Road. There is parking along both sides of the street just past the second entrance.

For more information, please contact:

For more details and to register for this hike, please contact Kara Hollandsworth khollandsworth@holytrinityclemson.org /telephone: 864-654-5071 or Laura Snow Hawkins at mrshawkinsft@gmail.com. TEXT/CELL 864-608-7453. You can follow Holy Hikes Upper South Carolina at: <https://www.facebook.com/HolyHikesUpperSouthCarolina/> to RSVP and check for updates/cancellations.

PLEASE: RSVP so that we have enough bulletins and wafers for all.

Come join us for a hike with a celebration of the Holy Eucharist in nature.