

PARISH PRAYER LIST

We pray for Justin, the Archbishop of Canterbury; Michael, the Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church; and Daniel, our bishop; for the people and clergy of the Episcopal Diocese of Haiti, especially in Cange and Bois Joli; for all those who are persecuted for their faith; and for the clergy, staff, and vestry of our parish.

We pray for Joseph, our President; Henry, our governor; and all entrusted with authority and those who influence public opinion; for peace and justice throughout the world, especially in the Holy Land, Haiti, Afghanistan, and Ukraine; for healthcare workers and other frontline workers; for those affected by natural disasters and recent violent weather; for healing for our nation and the courage to work for justice and peace; for all students, faculty, and staff of schools and universities, especially for families with young children.

We pray for all those in any kind of need or trouble, especially for Dot and Bill, Violet, Frieda Wald, Carolyn Foster, Jasy, Ann and Fred Hoffman, Kate Hindin, Kris, Betty Carter, Moira, Maria Stamey, Earl Burch, Robbie Hughes, Elizabeth DeLoach, Felix Salinas and family, the people of Ukraine and Russia, Gilbert, Jimmy Robertson, Mary Longo, Maddie, Alan, Al Mathiasen, Salman Rushdie, the Maiberger family, Susan, Sileen, Harriette Scales, Joan Powers, Joshua, Laura, Jenn, Doug and Linda, Diane Porter and family, and all who have COVID and their families.

We pray in thanksgiving for all who are recovering and have recovered from COVID-19, for the COVID vaccine and those who have taken it and the birthdays of the birthdays of Rowan Evans, Jean Jameson, Nigel Kaye, Caleb Ellison, and John Warner.

We pray for the repose of the souls of all the departed, especially Donald Porter, Beth Mathis, Michael Spooner, Missy Nail, Gary Wickes, and all who have died from the coronavirus this week.

Please send us your prayers of thanksgiving as well as prayer requests. All names will be listed for three weeks unless a longer time is requested. To add a name to the list, send an email to Serena DuBose at daffydubose@gmail.com. Please consider if you need to speak to someone before adding a name to the list to prevent misunderstandings.
